THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE CITY PRISON.—At the meeting of Council on last Tuesday night, it will be remembered, the First Branch refused to go into joint session for the purpose of electing a Superintendent of the Gity Prison. The Second Branch, thinking to bring the "house of lords" to terms, passed a resolution refusing to pay any further bills which may be incurred by the present occupant of the office, and directing the Clerk to serve a copy of said resolution upon Mr. Sylvis. Yesterday the Superintendent received the following notice: The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Second Branch of Council of the city of Wheeling, October 9, 1877:

notice. ALEX. UPDEGRAFF, Chy Clerk.

Mr. Sylvis was elected Superintendent of the City Prison, or rather Work House, as the name has since been changed, on the 26th of October, 1875, but did not file his bond with the City Clerk until the first part of December following. The ordinance establishing the Work House declares that "the Superintendent shall hold his office at the pleasure of Council," but the city charter, which is higher authority, fixes the term of all city officers at two years. It has been insinuated by members of the Second Branch that the refusal of the First Branch to go into an election was at the instigation of Mr. Sylvis, in order that he might retain the office. Such is not the fact. Mr. Sylvis was as much surprised as any one at the hitch in Council over the election of his successor.

The points made by Mr. Blair, in speaking to the resolution offered by him in the First Branch to, which prevented the election, as we understand it, are substantially as follows: As Mr. Sylvis did not file his bond until December, his term of office did not really commence until December, and has consequently not yet expired. If this be correct, Mr. Blair maintained, in case of an election now, there would be two Superintendents, as all officers are requirted to qualify within ten days after their election. The First Branch, therefore, refused to go into an election on this account. It is ioods, 10 to 25c.
